Fired by Speaking Trips; Rests for Home Stretch of Campaign.

MARTIN (O.) Oct. 22.—The last of his campaign swings outside Ohio completed, Senator Harding, took a real holiday today before starting work on the series of speeches he will deliver next week in principal cities of his own State.

After his arrival here late in the morning, he left for a forty-mile motor ride to Mansfield and a game of golf.

It was the first time in several weeks that he had taken so complete a rest from the cares of the campaign. Although he appeared in perfect health, the strain of his speaking trips had left him tired and he said he wanted to refresh himself with some wholesome physical exercises before taking up the home stretch of the campaign.

Tomorrow the nominee will begin preparation of his final campaign utterances, to be delivered on the last four nights of next week to audiences in Cleveland, Akron, Cincinnati and Columbus. No more near-panic dates have been booked,

and these four addresses may be the only ones he will deliver before

election day.

It is considered entirely possible,

however, that when he leaves

Cincinnati on his way to Cleveland

he will have run into many of the one near-panic dates have been booked,

and these four addresses may be the

only ones he will deliver before

election day.

CALLS SINGLE TAX A MENACE.

People's League Secretary Discusses Measure.

Declares Blow is Aimed at Development Needs.

Points to Statements of Many Authorities as Proof.

Backed by many big organizations of the State, business, fraternal and social, the People's Anti-Single Tax League of California, from its headquarters in this city, is waging the most determined and vigorous campaign against the single-tax movement in this State that it has done during the ten years in which the single-tax advocates have been active in their efforts to amend the constitution of the State.

John P. Steele, secretary of the league, stated yesterday that in addition to the great amount of advertising in the State, the league is also publishing a daily, weekly and monthly publication throughout the State, no less than half a million pieces of educational literature. Regarding single-tax has been placed directly in the hands of the voters, mostly by house-to-house distribution.

"This literature," says Mr. Steele, "has all been, like our publicity, of an educational character, intended to instruct the men and women of California who are called upon to make a decision in this all-important matter."

"The members of this league—there are thousands of them, all taxpayers of the State, some big and some small—are of the opinion that there is no more important thing for the voters of California to do at the election on November 2 than to put a stop to the agitation for single tax in California."

TO DAM CREDIT FLOW.

Further development of the resources of this State, future building operations, power, irrigation, projects, and the development and improvement of many big tracts of agricultural lands are all greatly affected by this measure.

"It is a fact that more than one-half of the money raised by the State for these projects and enterprises at the present time is derived from sources outside of the State."

"The constant agitation for single tax in California has aroused a feeling among the great financial institutions of the country, which control the source of supply of these funds, that California may, through the frantic efforts of the single taxers, become unsafe for investments; that the land values may sometime be so depressed that the adoption of the single-tax measure. As a result this source of capital for investment in California is beginning to become timid."

"This year the People's Anti-Single Tax League has caused the passage of the ballot amendment No. 4, which requires that hereafter all petitions for measures for taxation or assessment shall have the signatures of 25 per cent of the voters voting for Governor at the last preceding election, instead of 10 per cent, and our fight this year is to carry this amendment, as well as to defeat amendment No. 26, the single-tax, or land values amendment."

EDUCATE PEOPLE.

"All of our argument is based upon facts and statements made by such authorities as State Controller John E. Chambers, E. P. Cline, president of this league, and others."

"We have made our campaign educational, rather than argumentative, believing that the justification for amendment No. 4 lies wholly in the fact that it is the only means by which we can save California from the single-tax menace, and that it is not harmful to any interest except the single tax, and that its adoption will rid the State of the single-tax agitation."

SAYS OPERA STARTED WIFE ON A RAMPAGE.

Non-Lessie M. Shaw, former Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, who came to California from his home in Washington to make a tour of California, talking before audiences of men and women against the single tax, was yesterday told by speakers before many of the farm bureaus, Rotary clubs, commercial organizations and women's clubs throughout the State.

"We hope that all these efforts have been sufficiently educated the people to induce them not to neglect to vote on this important matter."

BOYANIST ASKING COURT TO SAVE COLLECTION FROM BEING DESTROYED.

F. M. McDonald, botanist and civil engineer, believed with the poets that "music hath charms to soothe the savage breast," but he is now convinced that music has had the reverse effect on his wife, Ruth W. McDonald, a bride since last March. For twenty-four years Mr. McDonald has been collecting a botanical digest which he values as his life. Yesterday he brought suit against Mrs. McDonald to restrain her from destroying this work.

According to his counsel, Mrs. McDonald attended the opera and temperately the music seemed to aggravate her. On the 12th inst., Mr. McDonald says, she became angry and attempted to destroy his precious work. He called to her, she said, and threw heavy books and candles at him.

She left his home and went to reside with her sister. He asserts she returned home and smashed in the door. Mr. McDonald possesses most of his time guarding his great work and other property, according to his representations.

TWO ARE BANKRUPT.

A. N. Greenough, a real estate dealer of this city, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court yesterday, giving his assets as $14,112, all unsecured, and his liabilities as $4,000, of which $4,000 in the assets value of his real estate. D. D. Elmore, a dairyman of this city, filed a similar petition. His debts are scheduled at $22,224.44, of which amount $1,154.54 is unsecured. He gives his assets as $21,704.45, of which amount $1,984 is unsecured. His liabilities are scheduled at $16,500, and of $1,984 is unsecured.

AUTO LOST IN FLOOD DUG UP.

Engine and Tires in Good Shape After Six Years Under Silt Layer.

The big flood of 1914 washed away the barn of B. T. Rozelle, who owns a ranch near Whittier. His Buick automobile of the vintage of 1913 was washed away and never discovered until yesterday when engineers of the Flood Control District found it buried under six feet of silt.

Although the automobile was badly rusted, the tires were in good condition, and Mr. Rozelle says he is going to burnish up the car and use it, as the engine was not damaged. Supervisor McCallan suggested that the car ought to be put on exhibition.

War Veterans' Post Denounces Vocational Bureau.

Asks Investigation, Charging Allowances Delayed.

Lack of Harmony Declared to Cripple Staff Here.

Charging that lack of efficiency and harmony is indicated in the administration of the work carried on by the Federal Board of Vocational Education at this place, James B. Gresham Post No. 4, Veterans of Foreign Wars, session at Moose Hall Thursday night, adopted resolutions protesting against existing conditions and demanding an immediate investigation.

The resolutions were directed against Nicholas Ricciardi, district vocational officer at San Francisco, G. Vernon Bennett, supervisor of the Los Angeles district, who later could not be reached for his side of it last night.

The veterans further assert that "business men who are training our comrades have complained of a lack of co-operation and devotion to matters of vital importance in the work" and "the office force, consisting of able, efficient, young ladies, have nearly all complained of repressive measures and the absence of such regard to their efficiency in the work as is shown."

"Our comrades, James K. Burch, one of the training officers in this work, has rendered such efficient service to the bureau that he has been recommended for promotion. The supervisor and district vocational officer have refused to accept such recommendation and approval."

Montebello Man Files Suit to Oust Rival; Wants Recount Made.

William D. Stephens—not the Governor—who was a candidate for Trustee of Montebello at the election on the 8th inst., at which time the citizens voted to incorporate it as a city of the sixth class, brought suit against the Trustees declared elected yesterday asking that the courts hold a special session to recount the votes.

Mr. Stephens declares he received 255 votes, while Frank H. Olds, who was declared elected, received only 250 votes. Mr. Stephens says that the election officers failed to count and certify fifteen votes cast for him. He asks that the election of Mr. Olds be annulled.

Men's Pure Silk Knitted Ties, Half Price at $1.50

This lot of three hundred and sixty ties is the second and final lot of our recent purchase at half regular manufacturer's price. We sold the first shipment in one day; and this lot—being a heavy weight—will no doubt go as quickly.

Very unlikely that you will again have the opportunity to purchase silk knitted ties at such a low price as $1.50—what an opportunity for early Christmas shoppers!

WANTS ONE-MAN CAR FARE CUT.

Attorney in Petition Asks a Three-Cent Rate and Also Changes in Service.

Three cents is enough to pay for a ride in a one-man car, in the opinion of a number of business men represented by Attorney R. A. Morton, who yesterday filed with the State Railroad Commission a petition asking that 3 cents be tacked off the fare charged on the Los Angeles Railway. The petition further asks that the one-man coaches be barred from the downtown streets and congested lines; that each car be equipped with a medical emergency box for the benefit of passengers, and that no operator of a one-man car be permitted or forced to remain on duty for a longer period than three months.

BLUE BOOK OUT.

Up King's Annual Society Roster; New Names and New Features.

Fresh from the press, the South-west Blue Book, edited and published by Lenora H. King, will be distributed among a large number of subscribers in the coming week. For eighteen years Miss King has been continuously editor of this society directory, and her thorough knowledge of who's who in Southern California has enabled her to compile an annual volume of valuable data, especially useful to the fashionable world of the South-west, where she has long been known as a newspaper woman.

The book's enlarged scope is shown this year in the addition of many new names, the rapid growth of Los Angeles and environs calling for the listing of prominent families from various parts of the country who have purchased homes in Southern California and settled here. Aside from the main directory, the Southwest Blue Book contains a full list of country and other clubs—notably those of the Los Angeles district, California Federation of Women's Clubs. There is a list of marriages of the year and other admirable features, while the volume is attractively bound in blue with gold lettering.

PRICES TO GO BELOW NORMAL.

Bank President Says Decline Has Scarcely Begun.

Blames Underwood Tariff for Slowing of Industry.
Republican Victory Expected to Improve Business.

Prices have scarcely begun to fall, but before they have finished with the inevitable drop they will go as much below normal as they have been above normal, declared J. A. Graves, president of the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank, in the course of an address which he made yesterday at the luncheon of the Hundred Per Cent Club. Mr. Graves was given four questions to answer by the audience, in part: "The effect of the Underwood tariff was deadly upon the business of the country. You all know that unemployment became universal. Times became abnormally hard. At any rate, in 1914 we were in desperate straits. You can remember how hard we were hit. Just as soon as many's sea raiders were destroyed our foreign commerce was immediately stimulated. America was then a vast storehouse of food products, raw materials and manufactured goods. We became drunk with prosperity. Labor got independent and demanded and received unheard-of wages, adding seriously to the cost of production. At the same time, the hours of labor were shortened and the efficiency of labor decreased."

HARMLESS DURING WAR.

"In 1920 demand for food products began to slow down. Europe was getting back to production. During the war, the Underwood tariff was rendered harmless. Our were no vessels to carry imports and no foreign nation had time to export to us. But in 1920, Europe had so far recovered that she began to ship in raw materials and manufactured goods. China and Japan are flooding us with goods. The American bean grower cannot today sell at cost of production. Wheat and grain are coming almost daily from Canada. "Raisins and walnuts, olive oil and lemons, are coming from Italy in unheard-of quantities. Walnuts are also coming from Japan and France. "It took to be plenty or scarce" was the second question taken up by the speaker, who described

WARRIOR PRIEST AGAIN CITIZEN.

Federal Judge Repeals Catholic Father Who Fought With French.

Father Charles Augustus Delves, connected with the monastery of St. Benedict at Montebello, was repatriated in U. S. District Judge Triplet's court yesterday. Father Delves was naturalized in New York on June 2, 1902. But when the great war broke out he offered his services to his native country and served two years in the French army. At the close of the war Father Delves went to Jerusalem, where he was in charge of the Syrian missions of the Catholic church in that ancient city until about three months ago, when he returned to his former church home at Montebello. Father Delves said that, with the end of the fighting for France, he was anxious to resume his American citizenship.

present conditions of unemployment in the East, and declared that the time is about past when labor will be able to dictate not only wages, hours and employment, but even the amount of work to be done, and the output. Wages, he said, will drop. A decidedly negative answer was made to the third question, "Is business headed for the rocks?" Mr. Graves gave it as his opinion that the volume of business will fall off but that by reducing expenses, practicing economy and guarding against needless expansion, business will soon find itself in safer channels. To the fourth question, "What effect will the election have on the tariff situation?" Mr. Graves replied that a Democratic victory would bring no beneficial changes to the tariff, but that with the Republicans in power the enactment of a protective tariff measure will be a certainty next spring.

How the League Issue Is Splitting the Parties

The desertion of the Harding camp by a former Republican National Committeeman and a number of other prominent pro-League Republicans after Senator Harding's uncompromising rejection of the League of Nations in its present form in his Des Moines speech, convinces many observers that the League has taken its place at the eleventh hour as a clear-cut issue of the Presidential campaign. But if the League issue is now rending the Republican ranks, it is also a matter of common newspaper remark that earlier in the campaign it won over to the Harding banner many Irish-American and German-American voters who supported Wilson in 1916. And it will be remembered that it was on this issue that the Hearst papers abandoned their traditional Democratic allegiance.

In the Democratic camp Senator Harding's Des Moines speech was greeted with every appearance of rejoicing. The New York Times (Dem.) declares that "the election of Cox means a League of Nations acceptable to President Wilson, and Republican success apparently precludes American participation in the League," but, affirms the Baltimore American (Rep.), all that Senator Harding has done in this matter has been to "turn his back upon the Wilson League and turn his face toward the Constitution and toward the Senate," and the New York Globe (Rep.) is "convinced that Senator Harding will be compelled to move for the ratification of the Treaty of Versailles."

A most interesting and instructive analysis and digest of public opinion on the League of Nations issue will be found in the leading article of THE LITERARY DIGEST for October 23rd. Other striking news-features in this number are:—

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Big Shipment of Export Gasoline is Financed Here; Good Price News.

By CHAPIN HALL.

One of the largest and most interesting export financial deals of the month was closed yesterday by the Merchants' National Bank, through George B. Carpenter, foreign trade adviser for that bank.

The transaction involves the shipment of 230,000 gallons of gasoline, contained in 23,000 cases, and having a value of $200,000.

The gasoline is consigned to New Zealand and Australia and is important in furthering the claims of this city as a growing export center and gives practical evidence of the possibilities for the development of world trade in Los Angeles through correct understanding between the banks and the traders of the details involved.

The shipment goes forward on the steamship Las Vegas, operated by the General Steamship Company. The history of the transaction is given because of its pathfinding character.

The Universal Sales Company of this city held orders for the gasoline. The Wilshire Oil Company and an Oklahoma oil producer secured the order. The bank arranged a proper basis for extending credit necessary to the export.

Who in turn employed the Grahm Engineering Works to place the gasoline in cases and packed and demanded by foreign buyers of this American commodity. The Harris Truck Company entered the deal as a result of this same credit arrangement and contracted to transfer the gasoline to the harbor.

Within a few minutes after delivery of ocean bills of lading cash checks were issued by the Merchants' National Bank to all contributors to the shipment, thus releasing for distribution in Los Angeles $104,000 of foreign capital for the local portion of the purchase.

In arranging for the General Steamship Company to issue ocean bills of lading prior to the arrival of the vessel in port an execution of the practice was accomplished which will mean much to local shippers in the future, when vessels are similarly delayed.

GREAT WESTERN MILLING.

The Great Western Milling Company, with offices and mill at Ninth and Alameda streets, has passed under the receivership of William H. Moore, Jr., pending an adjustment of its financial affairs. The receiver states that the corporation is solvent, but that by reason of unusually heavy demands and the inability to raise ready cash, a receiver was necessary to hold the assets intact. The business will be continued under the management of Mr. Moore, who says that no creditor will be given preference.

LOS ANGELES STOCKS.

Associated Oil, which had such a sharp return on Thursday, failed to maintain the stimulation induced by rumors which were unfounded and yesterday sold off 1.4 points. Opening transactions were at 103 and early in the afternoon sales were registered as low as 102.5. From this point there was a reaction up to 104.75 and the closing bid was one-fourth under the figure.

Other oils were sympathetically affected. Mines were in good demand at prices which showed no material changes from those prevailing on the preceding day. There was not much doing in industrial and government bonds were only fractionally affected, the general average remaining undisturbed.

European and political conditions tended to uncertainty, and professional traders are not looking for anything exciting until after election.

CHEAPER PORK?

From Kansas City comes an intimation of cheaper pork and lard, the intimation being that in the first two weeks in October live hogs in the Kansas City market declined 13 per hundredweight, and the trade has not yet fully felt the weight of the fall movement. Receipts show a sharp decrease in the corresponding period a year ago, but, on the other hand, the reduction in export demand is even greater, while the slump in cotton has affected the buying powers of the Southern States, which are ordinarily heavy consumers.

PRICES WILL TUMBLE.

Purchasing agents in convention in Chicago agree that we are just at the beginning of price declines. "Prices of most commodities will have dropped at least 10 per cent by spring," according to the opinion of a vice-president of the organization, who added, "Cotton goods and similar merchandise will drop 35 per cent, as will steel and food-stuffs."

BOND MARKET.

Bond men and investment bankers agree that the present market for bonds is remarkable. Issues for large sums have been selling almost as soon as they were offered. Los Angeles observers assert that the peak has been reached, and think that it will not be necessary to put out any more high-class issues at more than 8 per cent. Because of this excellent market all kinds of financing is being proposed and extra vigilance is being exerted to

Why the flavor doesn't vary—

It is remarkable that twenty-four kitchens can cooperate so closely that the quality of Tillamook Cheese does not vary. The cheese in every vat is tested before it leaves the kitchen and unless the highest standard is reached, Tillamook is not placed on the rim.

Tillamook is so good in flavor because of its creamy richness. It is high in food value and will reduce the cost of living materially if substituted for meats and eggs on your menu. Five quarts of full cream milk are used in making a pound of Tillamook Cheese.

Delicious souffles, egg omelettes, potatoes, macaroni and cheese and other every day dishes will be improved by the use of Tillamook Cheese—and melted Tillamook Cheese on toast—oh, how good!

DENTON INQUIRY
MOVING SWIFTLYMore Than Half of Witnesses Heard by Grand Jury.Mrs. Peete's Gown Figure in the Day's Evidence.Shot Through Neck is Proven the Cause of Death.

Two surprise witnesses were included yesterday among the twelve whose testimony before the grand jury resulted in greater progress being made in the Denton murder investigation than was anticipated and brought the climax of the case much nearer. Fourteen persons, more than half of the list, have now testified before the county investigators, who will resume the hearing Monday morning. Mrs. R. C. Peete, about whose investigation has been revolving, apparently will be called last.

The new witnesses, whose testimony is assumed to have dealt with the purchase by Mrs. Peete of two expensive gowns after the middle of August and the assertion that she charged them to the account of "Mrs. J. C. Denton," were Miss Anne C. Healy, buyer, and Mrs. Maud Cunningham, after, for a large downtown store. The purchase of these gowns, three weeks after the murder, and their subsequent disappearance after the discovery of the murder are important points in the circumstantial case which the District Attorney's officials are building.

Other witnesses were County Autopsy Surgeon Wagner, whose report, as foretold by The Times yesterday, definitely established the cause of death as a bullet wound through the neck; Paul R. Aument, nephew of the murdered man; James W. Crowhurst, William F. Heitman, W. M. Arkins, Dr. Frank S. Webb, H. A. Comber, Detective Sergeant C. A. E. Hickok, W. R. Doerr and Al Hayden.

With the arrival in the city of Chief Deputy Duran and Deputy Turner, who have been conducting the investigation, immediately went into conference with him for several hours, going into all details of the case.

That Dr. Wagner told the grand jury of finding three chunks of lead driven into the back part of the body's neck was learned by The Times yesterday. The third autopsy performed by Dr. Wagner after the X-ray photographs gave the first view led to the discovery of splinters from the neck. These showed evidence of having been shattered with a bullet, and close by were three small pieces of lead, it was learned. The autopsy surgeon's testimony is regarded as very important in view of the fact that a revolver with one exploded shell was found in the house, the officers say.

DAY'S WITNESSES
Included in the day's witnesses were several whose previous statements have been regarded by the investigating officials as important in establishing some of the circumstances which have led to the general belief that an indictment will result from the grand jury action. Heitman is the man who hauled into the basement the dirt which later was found over the body. He did this, he declares, on June 2, the supposed date of the crime, and on orders from Mrs. Peete. Arkins, an old friend of Denton's and an acquaintance of Mrs. Peete, has told about an asserted request from Mrs. Peete for information regarding where she could buy cement with which to make a cache for some of the cherished belongings of the second wife of Denton. This request, coming after the murder, is considered by the officials as significant. Mrs. Peete has declared to The Times that she asked Mr. Arkins where she could buy cement because Mr. Denton had planned to build some steps in the back yard. Arkins has also been instrumental in establishing definitely the identity of the body.

Crowhurst has made several statements to the authorities, that he was warned by Mrs. Peete not to disturb the basement closet which later was found to be a crypt and that when he first entered the basement June 5 the door was not, as securely nailed as on subsequent visits. Crowhurst also sold some of Denton's clothing, given him, he declares, by Mrs. Peete for that purpose, in August. Heister, a Jew, which, he says, he removed on June 5, were found piled on top of the dirt which covered the body. Aument, as one of Denton's relatives, who were investigating his disappearance before the officials were called into the case, has told of explanations which, he says, Mrs. Peete gave him for Denton's absence in June and July. She is declared by him to have said that she saw Denton as late as the middle of July, and that he was keeping out of sight for reasons of his own; that he was married again and that he did not want his relatives and friends to know where he was.

ABOUT THE CAR.
Messrs. Doerr and Hayden are the salesman connected with the automobile agency with which Mrs. Peete paid a deposit on a $2840 machine and which had a bill of sale for

Men's Overcoats

Specially Priced at 39.75

Formerly Considered a Rare Value at 50.00 and 55.00

Men, it certainly should need little discussion to convince the most skeptical of the downward trend of Hamburger's prices after this announcement! Do you remember what you paid for your Overcoat last Fall? Or were you one of those who preferred to wear his old coat?

At any rate you can well afford a new one this year. Especially when such value is combined with such a price!

Here we have to offer the newest models, either with or without belts. All the splendid tailoring by means of which Hamburger's Men's Store has established its enviable reputation. They are all wool, of course, and the selection is broad and varied enough to meet the tastes of everyone. Single or double-breasted styles, ulster and convertible models. Sizes 34 to 42.

Smart All Wool Suits at 31.50

A value, Men, fit to accompany our most unusual offering of overcoats. A rich selection of all-wool fabrics. Finely tailored, custom built suits. Young men's and conservative models—and at 31.50.

It will be worth the time to come in and see the new models. They are fuller hanging from the shoulders and the coats are longer. The whole atmosphere of them is one of moderation and good taste. There are plain grays, blues, browns and oxfords, as well as neat patterns in mixtures, stripes and checks. Sizes 34 to 44. We need but mention the price again—$31.50—to crowd the Greater Men's Store tomorrow!
